DCTM Membership Information

DCTM – Delaware Council of Teachers of Mathematics, Inc. is dedicated to developing and sustaining the highest quality in the teaching and learning of mathematics. DCTM is a nonprofit affiliate of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics and represents and serves Delaware teachers, students, and other constituencies.

The mission of DCTM is to provide leadership in mathematics education for the State of Delaware. To accomplish this mission, DCTM will:

- Provide and promote professional development opportunities for teachers of mathematics
- Provide a network for the exchange of ideas, issues, and instructional strategies
- Develop professional relationships with other organizations
- Encourage students to enjoy and value mathematics

In line with these goals, DCTM dues support professional development opportunities through workshops, conferences (T³ – Teachers Teaching with Technology), and dinner meeting speakers. Student activities include Math League and the Poster Contest. To facilitate networking, DCTM maintains a Website at www.dctm.k12.de.us, prints a quarterly newsletter and maintains a listserv.

DCTM is an organization dedicated to improving the mathematics education of all students in Delaware. Mathematics teachers and administrators are encouraged to join. The annual membership fee is $10.00. Teachers new to Delaware who wish to join are given a free one year membership. The membership form is on the back of this sheet.
